FIFTEEN CENTS

Antioch joins act at Saravejo

by GLORIA DAVIS

With the entire world looking forward to the 1984 Winter Olympics in Saravejo, Yugoslavia, next week, Antioch residents are getting into the act.

Gene Mondrowski, the smiling blond lady at Johnson Jewelers, will be glued to the big screen tv set she plans to rent to watch the action when her 17-year-old nephew from Chicago, Eddie Olczyk, who is the youngest member of the American Olympic hockey team, takes to the ice Feb. 6.

JAMES MCMILLEN

Jim McMillen First Antioch VIP Dies

James McMillen, athlete, politician, patriot, county activist, civic leader, businessman and area legend, died Jan. 27, at the age of 81, after a long illness.

Residents of Antioch will remember McMillen's prowess on the football field, both at the University of Illinois and when he played for the Chicago Bears.

McMillen's athletic prowess was not limited as he furthered a wrestling career started in college by becoming a professional wrestler.

After serving as a Lt. Commander in the United States Navy, he joined the Antioch business community and served as the village's mayor from 1952 to 1958.

He was Antioch's first VIP when he was honored at St. Peters in 1969. For more information see obituary on page 10.

And in conjunction with the official raising of the Olympic flag and the lighting of the Olympic flame at Saravejo, on Tuesday, Feb. 7, Antioch's McDonalds will be raising the Olympic flag at 10 a.m., simultaneously with all the McDonalds in the world.

Raising the flag in Antioch will be Dr. Mike Passarella and Bob Diemer, both of whom have a special interest in the Olympic games.

Passarella was on the 1968 United States speed skating team, competing in the 500 meter sprint in the international competition at the 1968 Winter Olympics in Grenoble, France.

Diemer, who became interested in luge racing while watching the last Olympic games on television, tried out for the 1984 U.S. luge team at Lake Placid, N.Y., but failed to make the team.

The Antioch Upper Grade School senior band will play at the flag raising ceremony. Earl Bush, the band's director, had to really hunt for a copy of "Olympic Fanfare," and put a lot of hours into transposing the music to fit the talents of the grade school band.

Village officials and dignitaries are also expected to be present at the flag raising.

Passarella, who had planned to attend this year's games, has had to take a pass because of business commitments.

So he will be watching the games on tv along with the rest of us, remembering the thrill and excitement of Grenoble and the time he officiated at Lake Placid.

"There's no describing the thrill you experience when you are told that you have made the Olympic team," said Passarella.

That thrill was experienced a bare three weeks before the actual competition and came after two years of grueling self motivated training he paid for himself.

Starting his skating career at three, Passarella went into actual competition at 11.

After competing on a state, national and international level, he started his quest for an Olympic berth in 1966.

Passarella put himself into a two-year training program that not only meant skating, both in practice and competition, but called for four hours a day of weight lifting, running etc. to get the body in shape.

This he did both in the countries of Europe and back in the good old U.S.A at the rinks in Northbrook and Eric Hyden's stomping grounds of West Allis, Wis.

He said he will never forget just being there when the United States hockey team beat the Russians or actually watching the internationally famous skiers go off of the Olympic ski jumps.

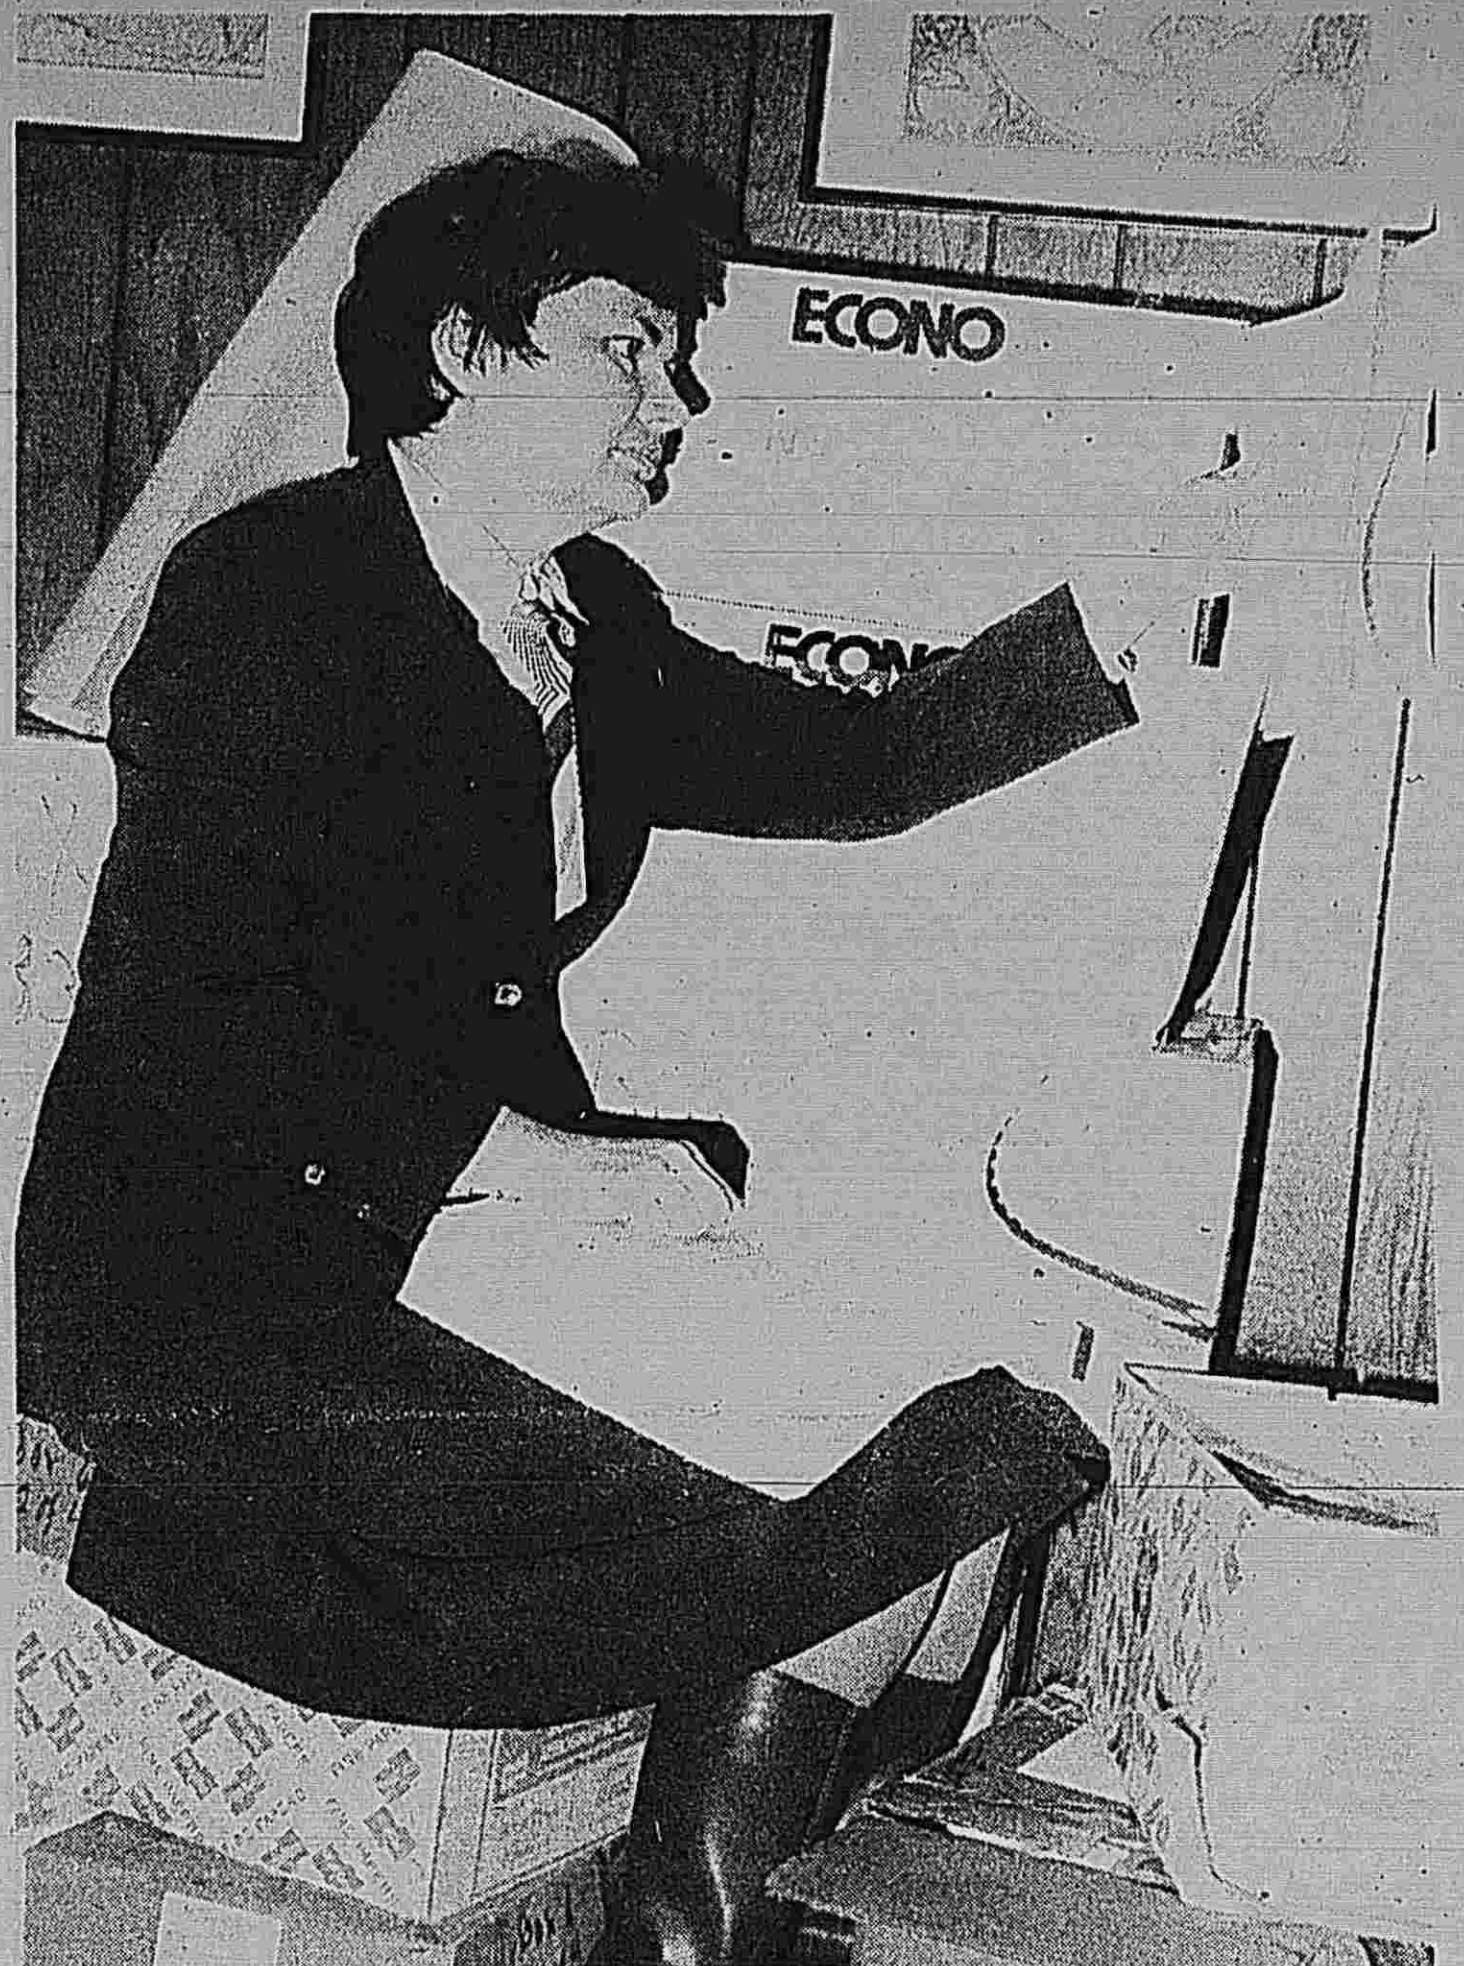

When Diemer decided to go for the gold in luge sledding he sent for a luge sled from East Germany.

This unusual sport has a one or two man team riding a three-foot sled that has runners, weighs approximately 50 pounds, through a 1,000 meter course much resembling that used by bobsledders.

"Besides keeping yourself in shape by doing weight lifting to gain strength, practicing on hills on sleds with rollers, there is only one place you can practice the real thing," he said.

Lake Placid has the only official refrigerated luge track in the western hemisphere and Diemer was able to make use of its limited availability for practice only twice before the Olympic tryouts there.

Village gets HOD records, and how!

by GLORIA DAVIS

It may have taken from August to December for the village of Antioch to get the discovery material listing what has gone into Antioch's landfill site since 1974, but get it they did!

Boxes and boxes filled with Waste Management, Inc.'s records arrived at the office of Village Atty. Ken Clark from the disposal company, the delivery finally initiated by the injunction procedure filed by the village, forcing the disposal company to close the site.

Clark's assistant, attorney Donna Henderson, now has an office full of boxes of records. She has already started on the horrendous job of perusing the files in order to get more information to help keep the landfill site closed permanently.

At present, the village is expecting a decision soon from the Second Dist. Appellate Court on Waste Management's appeal of that court's decision to uphold the Lake County Board's denial of its request for a permit for horizontal expansion of the site.

On March 5, Lake County Judge William

Block is expected to hand down his decision on the village's request to make permanent the temporary injunction it received concerning the permit given to Waste Management by the Illinois Pollution Control Board for 60 feet of vertical expansion of the site.

Revitalization scheduled to go Jan. 30

The Antioch Village Board will hold a committee meeting concerning the proposed renovation of the downtown shopping area, specifically the stores on Main St., at 7:30 p.m., on Monday, Jan. 30, at the village hall.

Mayor Ray Toft will appoint a seven-man committee made up of himself, three board members and three residents, which will spearhead the revitalization project.

Overall winners of the events were Austria, first, Finland, second, Norway, third, and the United States fourth.

Oftedahl has returned to Washington, D. C. where she was congratulated by her friends and coworkers at the American Council For the Blind where she is director of publications.

Lake Villa Medical to get larger office

The Lake Villa Medical and Urgent Care Center is moving to a larger office at 204 N. Milwaukee Ave., Lake Villa from 95 W. Grand Ave.

Dr. G. Raymond Gavary said the additional space is needed because of the rapid growth of the center since it opened six months ago.

Doctors on the center staff are leading local physicians certified in family practice, internal medicine, and industrial medicine.

IN ADDITION, the center has modern laboratory, X-ray and other diagnostic services.

Dr. Gavary stated that the acceptance by the local community of the medical center with the many special benefits the physicians and the staff want to offer has required the relocation.

Special programs for patients include no waiting, rapid insurance processing, special payment plans, a personal interest in each patient, prompt return of all telephone calls, continued late hours and urgent care services.

"To deliver immediate care at the most convenient time and place to the patient is our greatest ambition," Dr. Gavary said.

"PLUS WE offer ongoing, continuous care. Not just a one time encounter," he continued.

Dr. Gavary mentioned that a very important part of the practice has been urgent care capabilities of the center.

In medicine urgent care is defined as the ability to rapidly respond to people who become suddenly ill or have an accident.

The Lake Villa Center is open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and soon will be extended to 10 p.m.

Convenient late hour and week-end appointments are handled at the nearby Lakewood Midical and Urgent Care Center.

Lakewood is open until 10 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

It is located on Rte. 45, one mile south of Rte. 120.

He added, "The acquisition will enable our bank to gain the experienced and professional personnel of the Antioch Trust Co. and enter the field of employee benefit plans."

According to Paul Pevenski, president and chairman of the board of the trust company, the only thing that has changed since the bank's December acquisition of the trust company is the ownership.

The employees and directors of the trust company will remain the same.

On the board of irectors of the trust company are Pavelski, Dan Dugenske, Richard Kirkpatrick, Walter Koziol, Joseph Patrovsky, Otto Springer and James Swaitek.

The Bank of Waukegan has assests that exceed $130 million. Under the control of the trust company are now $20 million which has grown from $800,000 in 1982.

Ask Dr. Sven

by Robert T. Sven B.S.D.D.S.

IMMEDIATE DENTURES

Q. What are "immediate" dentures? What are their advantages?

A: Immediate dentures do just what the term implies: they replace extracted teeth instantly; the patient need not wait until mouth tissue is completely healed after extractions. The dentist will determine if such dentures are advisable for your mouth.

Success in adapting to these dentures depends a great deal on your attitude towards them. Their advantages are: 1) you never need to appear in public without teeth; 2) they act as a bandage over extraction sites, help to control bleeding and to prevent food particles from irritating and inflaming sensitive gum tissues; 3) they save you having to learn to speak and chew without teeth, then relearn again later with dentures; and 4) they help to eliminate or minimize any distortion of your facial outline, since immediate dentures provide continuous support for tongue, lips and cheeks.

Explain St. Peters Board election procedure

On April 30, two members of the school board of St. Peters School (Marie Esser and Ted Sokulski) will have completed their terms. St. Peter Parish consequently will vote for their replacements.

To provide for a smooth transition in selecting their replacements, the school board has developed and adopted the following procedures for nominating, qualifying, and electing members of the parish school board.

Terms are for a period of three years. Members may serve a maximum of two elected terms.

The election committee will be appointed annually by the school board chairman to include ex-officio members of the board and board members.

The election will be held on April 15.

Voting will take place after each Mass (including the 5:30 p.m. Mass on April 14). All adult parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children are eligible to vote. Parish rolls will be used to determine voter eligibility. Election committee will be responsible to appoint election judges.

A simple majority will be sufficient to elect a member. In the event of a tie, a runoff election will be held on the following Sunday.

Results of any runoff election will be announced on the Sunday after the runoff. Election results will be published and announced on Sunday, April 22.

Elected members will be seated at the first regularly scheduled meeting after the election, i.e., in May. Ballots will be made available in Fr. Frawley Hall after each Mass.

Prospective members must qualify according to school board requirements: reside in the community for at least six months; be a parish member or parent of St. Peter school child; must be a minimum of 18 years old. No person employed by the school may serve on the board.

Candidates for board membership must submit their application-petition signed by at least 10 parishioners or parents of St. Peter School children, to the principal, no later than 3 p.m. Tuesday, March 6.

Application-petition forms will be available at the school office beginning Feb. 1. Names will appear on the ballot in the order petitions are filed.

The election committee will be responsible for certification of all applicants. The election committee will accept all application-petitions. The election committee will determine eligibility and acceptance of candidates to the school board.

Announcement of qualifying candidates will be made at the regular school board meeting of March 8.

Any candidate will have the opportunity to question the election committee should he/she fail to obtain certification and present his/her case in favor of certification prior to March 8.

The election committee will be dissolved after completion of elections.

When I think about it

Is keeping in touch all that is expected of politicians?

by GLORIA DAVIS

When one sees a politician continually reelected despite partisan leanings in a particular election year, one might draw the conclusion that this person must be doing the job the electors want done.

But evidences of the opposite often come to the fore, which leaves one wondering if the electors are doing their job of checking up on incumbent politicians to see if they are producing results before checking their name again on the ballot.

One U. S. congressman that comes to mind is a fellow that is very good at answering the letters or phone calls of the people in his district.

But a lot of people have said that this is as far as it seems to go, an acknowledgement that the petitioner has a problem and a promise to "look into it."

A family of four could probably live on this man's mailing expenditures for a year. Granted it is a good idea to keep in touch with the people that elected you, but results of the promise to follow the situation up might more merit another term on the taxpayers than just being receptive and friendly.

I was once at a reception for this congressman wherein he greeted the area people personally and let them each devour his seemingly sincere interest in their individual problems.

As one lady was telling him of her problems experienced with the local post office, (At that time he was on a committee concerned with the affairs of the U. S. Postal Service) he seemed to be genuinely interested and surprised by her problem, saying, "I've never heard of such a thing," repeatedly.

He then called one of his staff and instructed her to take down all the information so that he could "look into it."

At that, the woman opened her large purse and produced a stack of letters she had received on that very subject from the man who had "never heard of such a thing."

The help of the same person was recruited by a couple that had a problem with the social security administration.

Her husband was a disabled World War Two veteran whom she supported since he was unable to hold down a job because he suffered severe headaches resulting from a service involved injury.

Although medical evidence showed a physical injury to the brain, the social security administration, after almost 10 years of fighting with the couple, insisted on labeling her husband's disorder as being a mental one.

The overwrought woman went to the congressman almost as a last resort because she refused to have her husband tagged with a mental disorder.

She was afraid that, in the event of her death, her husband, who she claimed was perfectly able to make his own decisions, would not be legally considered so for reasons of mental incompetence.

While undergoing testing and therapy at an achievement center he did maintenance at the center that he thought was part of the therapy.

They gave him a small amount of money per week that hardly paid for his transportation to and from the center.

Now, although he earned less than $1,000 this way over several months time, and taxes were deducted from it, the state wants her to pay additional state taxes on this money because she supports him and is responsible for his bills.

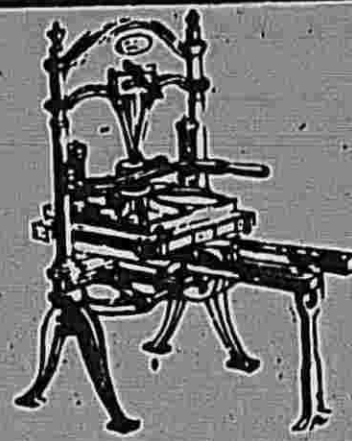

A month after the couple had explained the situation to the congressman's local representative, they received a letter signed by the politician himself, thanking them for coming to him and advising them not to hesitate to do so with future problems.

This was followed-up by a phone call from another member of his local staff, the gist of which was the same. The staff member seemed to have no reply but "he did look into it," when the irate wife asked what the congressman had done for them this time.

Since much time has lapsed and they have heard nothing more on the subject from him or any other agency that he might have contacted, the couple has been left to draw one of two conclusions.

Either the congressman is completely ineffectual as far as any agency he has contacted is concerned, or he actually did nothing but thank them for contacting him.

So maybe, before you vote for that name that sounds so familiar, drawing the conclusion that he or she must be good or else they wouldn't have been in office so long, a little looking into should be done by the electors to see what results particular politicians have produced to justify living off of the taxpayers for the last political term.

STARRING IN 'RAINMAKER' — Chirstina Lindberg, left, as Lizzie, plays lead role opposite Lou Jones, who plays title role of Starbuck, in PM&L's production of "The Rainmaker."

County marathon receives approval

"Plans for the 1984 Lake County Marathon, scheduled for April 29, are well underway and incorporate several administrative and financial changes to improve the race," announced Marathon Chairman Barry Seiller.

The most significant change in the 1984 marathon, formerly the Lake County Heart Marathon, is the naming of a new charitable co-sponsor, the Illinois Special Olympics (ISO).

The ISO is a program of physical fitness, sports training, and athletic competition for mentally impaired children and adults.

THE ORGANIZATION is based in Normal, and has a marathon office in Highland Park which it shares with the North Suburban Special Recreation Assn.

The ISO will receive proceeds from the marathon.

While physically, the marathon outgrew the resources of the Heart Association of Lake County, the association remains supportive and many of their members are still involved.

Other changes to be made for this year's race include a more effective countdown clock at the start; course alterations to improve runner safety in Lake Forest; an expanded pre-race seminar and dinner; and improvements to increase participation in the awards ceremony.

THE LAKE COUNTY Marathon is an annual event held in the spring in northeastern Illinois.

The route of the 26.2-mile foot race winds through the northern suburbs of Chicago along the lake.

Special features of the race include a simultaneous half-marathon; a train ride for runners from the finish in Ravinia Park to the start in Zion; more than 1,000 local volunteers and 100 corporate contributors; and 2,340 entries from more than 15 states, representing ages 13 to 78.

In 1983, two marathon runners qualified for the 1984 Olympic Trials.

PM&L show 'Rainmaker' to open

"The Rainmaker," N. Richard Nash's beautiful story of hope, love, and great expectations opens Friday, Feb. 3, at the PM&L Theatre in Antioch.

Considering the local weather lately, a play dealing with drought conditions in the hot summer will be a most welcome relief to "chain of lakes" theatergoers.

In addition to the customary excitement of opening night, "The Rainmaker" "first-nighters" this Friday evening will be invited to an audience appreciation party after the show at the theatre building.

Tickets are still available for all performances. Reservations can be made at (312) 395-3055. Money saving dinner-theatre packages may be obtained at the Village Pub (312) 395-3373 and at Struggles Restaurant (312) 395-9400, both in Antioch.

"The Rainmaker" performances are Feb. 3, 4, 10, 11, 12, (Sunday matinee) 17, 18. All shows begin at 8:30 p.m., except for matinee which is at 2:30 p.m. The Palette, Masque and Lyre Theatre is located at 877 Main St., in downtown Antioch.

Chain's ice derby offers $70,000 in prizes

Plans for the annual Chain O'Lakes Ice Fishing Derby and Winter Festival, set for Feb. 11 and 12, on Petite Lake, are in full swing.

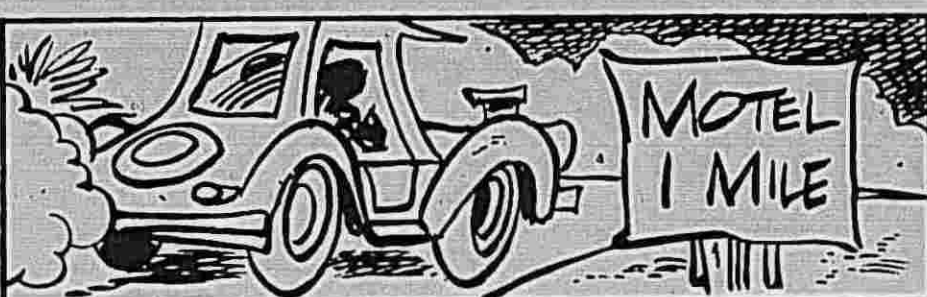

Chairmen of this year's derby are Bob Lindquist and Norm Rockow. Marilyn Sterbenz is the secretary, Marilyn Harnisch, her assistant, and Jean Rockow the treasurer.

The derby, as usual is sponsored by the Northern Illinois Conservation Club and the 885 Civic Club of Lake County.

This derby is known as the largest event of its kind in the state and most probably in the Midwest.

With tagged fish worth $60,000 having been released in the lakes just waiting to bite the lines of some lucky fishermen, $10,000 in prizes will be awarded on the days of the derby.

The derby's headquarters will be across from Kemp's resort in the subdivision park on Petite Lake.

The first motel was the Motel Inn, San Luis Obispo, California, opened on December, 1925.

Here's something virtually 0% of you know that should make all of you feel 200% better.

Residential space heating costs for 100 therms per month as of November 1, 1983, including state and local taxes.

Before we conducted our recent survey, we guessed that not many of our customers would know about the bright spots in the Northern Illinois Gas story.

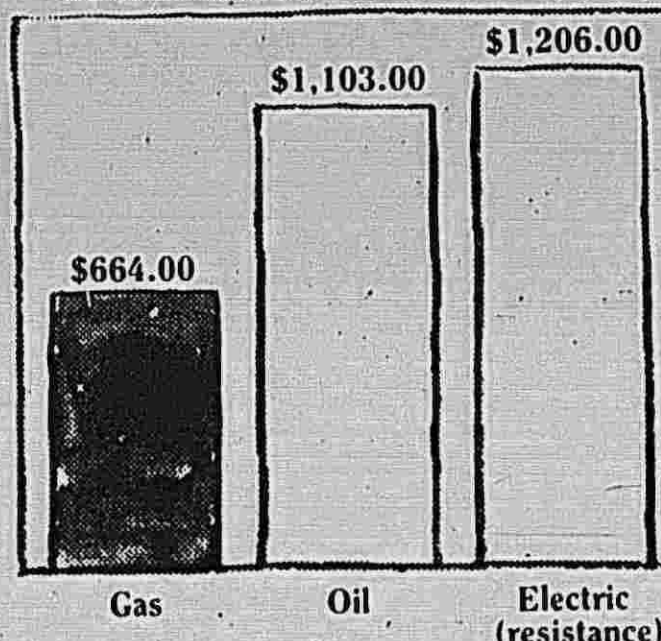

Our guess proved correct, and then some.

Because it turns out that virtually none of the people we surveyed realize how relatively inexpensive their natural gas is compared with the cost of gas elsewhere in the U.S.

The fact is, the natural gas we provide our customers is among the lowest priced natural gas in the entire U.S.

The graph on the pipe, showing a representative sample of U.S. gas costs, leaves no doubt of that.

Estimated annual fuel costs for heating a moderate size home (1,500 sq. ft.) in the NI-Gas area adjacent to Chicago as of November 1, 1983.

And if you care to compare the cost of different forms of energy, you'll find that natural gas remains by far the least expensive form of energy available today for home heating, cooking, and many other uses.

That's a record that we at Northern Illinois Gas take some pride in.

And it's something our customers can take comfort in as well.

The next question, of course, is whether anything else can be done, in addition to our efforts, to help minimize your gas bills.

The answer is Yes. It involves some effort on your part. And that's a subject we'll turn to, in the next ad in this series.

Sequoits bow twice, have 'Lost Weekend'

The Sequoit varsity cagers suffered a "Lost Weekend," when they bowed to both Niles North, on Friday, Jan. 27, and Mundelein, on Saturday, Jan. 28.

As Coach Don Zeman said, Antioch evidently was not ready for Niles North on Friday, as they were outrebounded, 29-20, and outscored, 73-49. The game was virtually over in the second quarter when Niles scored 16 consecutive points, leading to a halftime score of 29-19 with Niles on top.

Too many turnovers also hurt the Sequoits, Antioch losing the ball 21 times to Niles' 14.

Top scorer for the Sequoits was John Humphrey's with 14, followed by Dave Hart with 7, Dan Berkiel and Joe Keim were close behind with 6 each.

But Antioch seemed to regain some of its intensity when they met Mundelein on Saturday, led by the mighty Gary Churchill, who again proved to be the redmen's downfall, crushing them, 64-47.

Zeman credited his boys with working hard but "just not getting the job done."

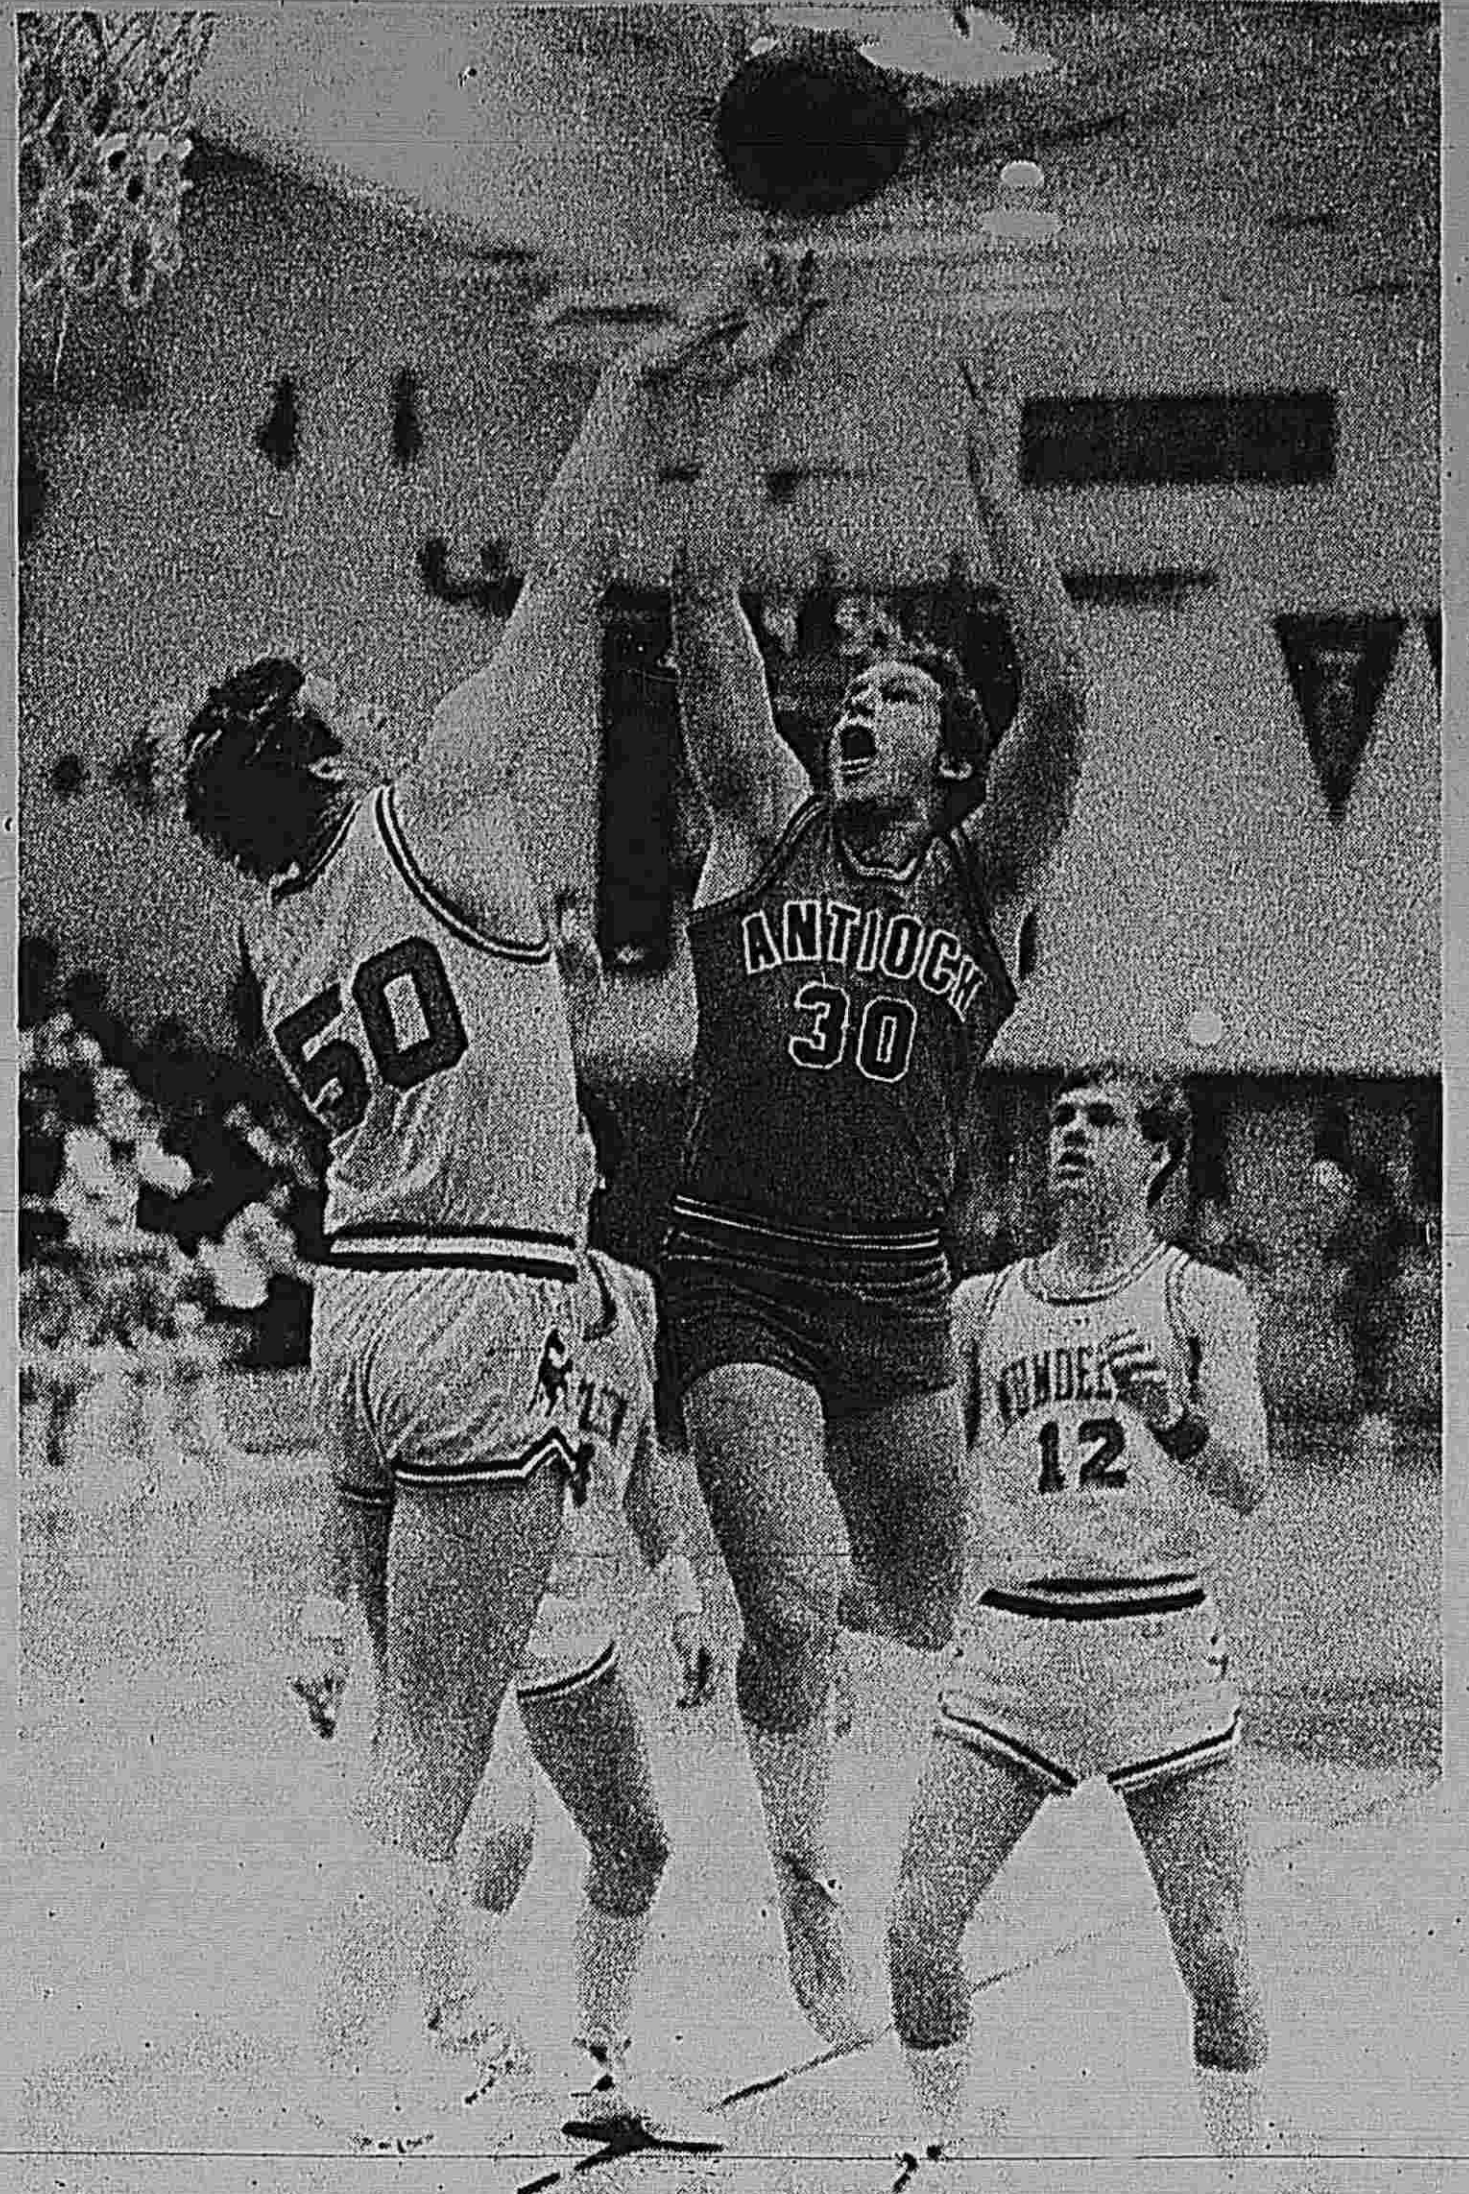

Again Antioch was outrebounded 32-22, but this time the turnovers were almost even-Steven, Mundelein having 6 and the Sequoits, 7.

Berkiel was top hooper in this one, with 10 and 6 rebounds. Don Korjenek had 8 and Steve Mueller had 7. Humphreys was credited with 6 assists.

Antioch seemed to be on target but suffered with a lot of rimmers during the evening.

With the two losses taking them out of the thick of the battle of the center of the division, Antioch will face Lake Forest at Antioch, at 8 p.m., on Tuesday, Jan. 31 and Libertyville on its court, on Friday, Feb. 4.

Sheriff's association offers scholarships

Sheriff Robert H. Babcox announced that the Illinois Sheriff's Assn. will, this year, award '84 scholarships of a maximum of $500 each, for the academic year 1984-85.

The goal of the association is to provide assistance to worthy Illinois students in furthering their education and training.

The scholarships will be awarded statewide to students pursuing courses in vocational training or attending institutions of higher learning in Illinois.

There is no restriction on applicants by reason of race, creed, color, age, sex, national origin or the course of study to be pursued.

The only limitations are that applicants be permanent residents of Illinois, the scholarships are to be utilized at institutions of learning within the state of Illinois, and the students must plan to be enrolled as full-time, under-graduate students.

The Sheriff's Scholarship Program is funded through the various programs of the Illinois Sheriff's Assn., including the Associate Membership Program which was started in 1980.

Sheriff Babcox advises all interested students to consult the administrator of the school they are now attending, or contact the Lake County Sheriff's Dept. Special Services Division at (312) 689-6300 for information and applications.

Applicants should submit their completed application forms to the Sheriff's Dept. Special Services Division, 10 N. County St., in Waukegan, before the deadline of March 1. Award recipients will be announced by May 1.

St. Peter's plans open house

As part of Catholic Schools Week, St. Peter School will host an Open House/Registration, on Sunday, Feb. 5, from 10:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m.

Parents are cordially invited to attend this event where their children's work will be displayed in each homeroom and throughout the school building. You are welcome to visit any area of the school.

On the same day St. Peter's is asking that all parents register their children for 1984-85 school year. Because some grades are close to the numerical limit, it is important that everyone register now.

Classes will not be permitted to exceed a certain number. In such grades those who register first will be given preference.

Every family must register including those presently attending St. Peter School.

There is a $25 per family (non-refundable) fee payment at the time of registration. First graders and new students must present a baptismal and/or birth certificate. First graders must be six years of age on or before Dec. 1, 1984.

Crane seeking study of tax amnesty

Congressman Philip M. Crane (R-Mt. Prospect) supports proposals that Congress study the possibility of collecting back taxes owed to the federal government by employing a one-time amnesty program. A similar program in Massachusetts collected more than $40 million in a just-concluded 90-day period. The results far exceed estimates that only $3 to $5 million would be taken in. The program applied to almost all state taxes, including income, corporate and sales taxes.

"I'm sure there are many Americans who are bothered by the knowledge that they owe back taxes and would welcome the opportunity to square themselves with Uncle Sam if they were assured they did not face penalty or criminal prosecution," declared Crane, a member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee.

"If Massachusetts could net $40 million, one can only imagine how great a sum the federal government might collect," he added.

"It could well be that Congress may decide such a tax amnesty program is not in the best interests of the country," Crane said.

Letter reveals some against Chain Agency

A smattering of nearly invisible and loosely organized opposition may be appearing to the March 20 referendum to create the Chain O' Lakes-Fox River Waterway Management Agency.

Voters in Antioch, Avon, Cuba, Grant and Lake Villa Townships in Lake County; all of McHenry, Burton and Richmond townships and those portions of Algonquin and Nunda townships east of Rte. 31, will vote on the formation of the agency on March 20.

A board of six directors will govern the agency, serving four year terms with no pay. If formation of the agency is approved, those directors will be elected in the November general election. The chairman will be elected at large and three directors will be elected from each county.

The agency will have the power to "implement reasonable programs to improve water sports and hunting, control flooding, regulate recreation, prevent pollution and improve quality of the waterway."

The agency will also have the power to charge "reasonable user fees for recreational boating and commercial uses of the waterway, but shall not have the authority to impose any tax."

"The agency shall devise a schedule of user fees which shall provide an annual fee of no more than $50 per craft for vehicles in the largest category and not more than $10 per craft for vehicles in the lowest category."

An unsigned letter circulating throughout the Chain area opposes the proposed agency, charging that "Mucho bucks have already been spent, including smaller by comparison dredging projects that are mostly useless after the first year."

The letter attempts to charge that homeowners on the Chain will not share in the cost of funding the new agency, which in fact they may not if they don't physically use the waters.

"If a homeowner says this doesn't benefit him it's a cop-out," the literature charges. "They will be voting on this. Can't they help pay for it too?"

The letter continues by saying that getting government funds to help manage the waterway "Sounds great...but when the fees give out money they also have many guidelines that dictate how it must be spent... For these funds received, we'll probably have our share of concessions to make too."

The letter continues by charging that funding would be used to "construct, improve and maintain recreational facilities...Could be a mighty expensive way

"Talk about a blank check. Let's not let this turn into the RTA of our waterway," the letter concludes.

To date, the proposal has received the support of many Chain O' Lakes area individuals and opposition from some Chain marina owners and boaters from outside of the proposed agency area who feel disenfranchised because they will not be allowed to vote on the agency referendum.
